IN THE SPECIFICATION

The Examiner has criticized the arrangement of the specification and organization of the application. The present application was prepared using an electronic template obtained from the United States Patent Office, called ABX. Applicant's attorney participated in a beta test of this software for the USPTO. The arrangement and organization was dictated by the ABX software. The format commented upon by the Examiner was also hard-coded in the ABX template that Applicant's attorney received from the US Patent Office. If the Examiner wishes, Applicant can provide a contact at the USPTO Electronic Business Center to confirm Applicant's comments.

To comply with the Examiner's objection, Applicant is providing a copy of the application which has not been prepared in the ABX template.
